13 WESTERN DIVISION

14 WHAM-O, INC., a Delaware
15 Corporation,

16 Plaintiff,

17 v.

18 MANLEY TOYS, LTD. and
19 AW COMPUTER HOLDINGS LLC,

20 Defendants.

21 Case No. CV08-07830 (SSx)
22 WHAM-O, INC.'S COMPLAINT
23 FOR DECLARATORY
24 JUDGMENT

CBM

1 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Plaintiff Wham-O, Inc. (hereinafter
 2 "Wham-O"), brings this declaratory judgment action against Manley Toys, Ltd.
 3 ("Manley") and AW Computer Holdings LLC ("AWCH") (collectively
 4 "defendants") under the trademark laws of the United States, 15 U.S.C. § 1111 et.
 5 seq. This court has original jurisdiction of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§
 6 1331, 1332 and 1338(a). Wham-O seeks a declaration that its famous and federally-
 7 registered SLIP 'N SLIDE, FRISBEE, and HULA HOOP trademarks have not
 8 become generic. In addition, Wham-O seeks a declaration that application Serial
 9 No. 77/234,204 for its SUPERBALL trademark should proceed to allowance.

10 BACKGROUND

11 1. Wham-O manufactures and markets some of the most recognizable toy
 12 brands in the world, including SLIP 'N SLIDE water slides, FRISBEE flying discs, 13 HULA HOOP toy hoops, and SUPERBALL sport and toy balls. Wham-O or its 14 predecessors have exclusively used these marks for over forty years. Toys sold 15 under the marks are among the most popular ever sold, with sales in the hundreds of 16 millions of units.

17 2. Defendant Manley, run by its principals, Samson Chan, Lisa Liu and 18 Brian Dubinsky, is a competitor of Wham-O and uses a variety of corporate alter-
 19 egos – SLB Toys USA, Inc. ("SLB"), Aquawood LLC, AWCH, Manley Toy Direct,
 20 LLC – to carry out the same business, often under the trade name "ToyQuest." This 21 case is an outgrowth of several other civil actions involving Manley, AWCH, and 22 their alter-egos and principals. Over the past several years, defendants have 23 engaged in a wide-ranging scheme to destroy Wham-O's business and the enormous
 24 goodwill associated with many of its famous brands.

25 3. To that end, defendants and/or their alter egos have repeatedly engaged
 26 in willful infringement of Wham-O's registered trademarks on a massive scale.

27 4. In one matter, concerning Wham-O's federally-registered SLIP 'N
 28 SLIDE design marks, on October 11, 2007, a jury found defendants' alter-ego SLB

1 liable for intentional infringement, dilution, and unfair competition and awarded
 2 Wham-O $6 million in actual and exemplary damages. In addition, on December 4.
 3 2007, the Court awarded Wham-O nearly $2 million in attorneys' fees and costs.
 4 See SLB Toys USA, Inc. v. Wham-O, Inc., C.D. CA. Civ. A. No. CV06-1382-
 5 RSWL-CW. On December 3, 2007, SLB also was permanently enjoined from 6 selling competing water slides using Wham-O's trademarked design. SLB and its 7 alter-egos Manley and AWCH ignored the injunction, which is the subject of 8 another civil action. See Wham-O, Inc. v. Manley Toys, Ltd. et al., C.D. CA. Civ. A.
 9 No. CV08-1281-RSWL-CW.

10 5. In another matter, concerning intentional infringement of Wham-O's
 11 federally-registered WAVE RIDER mark, on May 23, 2008, the Court entered a 12 $700,000.00 default judgment that included treble damages and attorneys' fees. See
 13 Wham-O, Inc. v. SLB Toys USA, Inc., C.D. CA. Civ. A. No. CV06-06508-RSWL-
 14 CW.

15 6. In yet another matter, defendants' alter-ego Manley Toy Direct, LLC, 16 along with its "its officers, agents, owners, employees, confederates, attorneys and 17 any persons in active concert or participation with them" were permanently
 18 enjoined, on October 19, 2006, from using the FRISBEE mark and Wham-O's
 19 federally-registered SUPERBALL mark "in connection with the advertising, 20 manufacturing, offering for sale, distribution or sale of toy products or any other
 21 goods that are not authorized by Wham-O." See Wham-O, Inc. v. Manley Toy
 22 Direct, LLC, N.D. CA. Civ. A. No. CV06-04504-JF.

23 7. Defendants' scheme to destroy Wham-O extends beyond trademark
 24 infringement into unfair competition. Defendants and their alter-egos paid a Wham-
 25 O senior executive to act as a "mole" for a period of months and eventually to steal
 26 Wham-O's proprietary trade secrets – including gigabytes of Wham-O's electronic 27 designs, business plans, and financial data. See Wham-O, Inc. v. Sefchick et al.,
 28 Superior Court, Alameda County, Case No. RG07329828. In that case, defendants

1 intentionally destroyed and attempted to hide electronic evidence of their outrageous
2 conduct.

3 8. Consistent with their scorched-earth tactics, the defendants' response to 4 the judgments against them has been to engage in extreme efforts to avoid payment.
5 Specifically, the defendant in the SLIP 'N SLIDE design mark matter, SLB,
6 purported to divest itself of all of its assets and liabilities through an unsupervised
7 and unregulated Assignment for Benefit of Creditors under state law. Wham-O is 8 attempting to enforce the judgment against SLB's alter egos, including Manley and 9 AWCH, in Wham-O, Inc. v. Manley Toys, Ltd. et al., C.D. CA. Civ. A. No. CV08-
10 1281-RS WL-CW. See generally Second Am. and Supp. Compl., C.D. CA. Civ. A.
11 No. CV08-1281-RS WL-CW, filed April 21, 2008 (detailing SLB's efforts to avoid 12 the judgment and its various alter egos).

13 9. Defendants latest strategy involves an attack on a new front: filing
14 baseless cancellation and opposition proceedings against Wham-O's marks at the 15 U.S. Patent & Trademark Office (the "PTO"). Specifically, defendants have filed
16 four separate petitions to cancel three of Wham-O's most famous and long-lived
17 trademark registrations: SLIP 'N SLIDE, FRISBEE, and HULA HOOP, and a
18 notice of opposition against a pending Wham-O application for its famous mark
19 SUPERBALL. These cancellation and opposition proceedings are the subject of 20 this declaratory judgment complaint.

PARTIES

22 10. Wham-O is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business
23 at 5903 Christie Avenue, Emeryville, California 94608.

24 11. Upon information and belief, defendant Manley is a company
25 organized under the laws of Hong Kong, with its principal place of business in 26 Kowloon, Hong Kong and a California address at 2228-2229 Barry Avenue, Los 27 Angeles, California 90064. Manley is a defendant in the related case Wham-O, Inc.
28 v. Manley Toys, Ltd. et al., C.D. CA. Civ. A. No. CV08-1281-RSWL-CW. Manley

1 regularly conducts business in this District and elsewhere throughout the United
2 States through the operations of SLB d/b/a Toyquest and its successor Aquawood
3 LLC d/b/a Toyquest. Manley has entered into contracts with United States retailers
4 that provide for the shipment of product into this District and elsewhere throughout
5 the United States, and Manley has also delivered such product to retailers in Hong
6 Kong with the knowledge and intent that such product be placed on retail store
7 shelves and sold to consumers throughout this District and elsewhere in the United 8 States.

9 12. Upon information and belief, defendant AWCH is a California limited
10 liability company with its principal place of business at 2228-2229 Barry Avenue,
11 Los Angeles, California 90064. AWCH is a defendant in the related case Wham-O,
12 Inc. v. Manley Toys, Ltd. et al., C.D. CA. Civ. A. No. CV08-1281-RS WL-CW.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This is an action for a declaratory judgment pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 2201, et. seq., arising under trademark laws of the United States, 15
U.S.C. § 1111 et. seq.

17 14. This Court has original jurisdiction of this action arising under 18 trademark laws pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332 and 1338(a).

19 15. Venue is proper in this jurisdiction under 28. U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) 20 because this is the judicial district where (i) a substantial part of the events or 21 omissions giving rise to the claim occurred; and (ii) where Defendants reside and/or 22 conduct business.

FACTS

The SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark

25 16. Wham-O and its predecessors have long engaged in the business of 26 manufacturing and marketing in interstate commerce toys called "water slides" sold
27 under the SLIP 'N SLIDE trademark (the "SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark"). SLIP 'N

1 SLIDE is an uncontested federally-registered trademark of Wham-O, U.S. Reg.
2 No. 761,883, attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

3 17. Since the introduction to the public of the SLIP 'N SLIDE water slide
4 toy in 1961, Wham-O or its predecessors have continuously used the SLIP 'N
5 SLIDE Mark, which has long served to identify and distinguish Wham-O's water
6 slide toys from those of others. Wham-O and its predecessors have sold millions of 7 water slides under the SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark, and Wham-O has consistently 8 promoted the mark on its packaging, creating a direct consumer association between 9 the SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark and Wham-O as source.

10 18. Wham-O has widely promoted the SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark, investing
11 significant expenditures on marketing efforts, including television advertising. The 12 product has been sold by all of the nation's largest toy retailers and through over 13 more than four decades of use, promotion and sales, the SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark has 14 become famous. The goodwill connected with the use of, and symbolized by, the 15 SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark is an extremely valuable asset of Wham-O.

16 19. In addition to continuous use of the SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark, Wham-O
17 actively polices the improper use of its mark by others. Wham-O regularly asserts
18 and enforces its rights against third-parties, including sending cease and desist
19 letters and, if necessary, filing lawsuits.

20 20. The primary significance of the SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark among relevant
21 consumers is to identify Wham-O as source. In apparent recognition of the 22 continuing and distinctive source-identifying nature of the SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark,
23 Wham-O competitors routinely refer to their products in the marketplace by the 24 generic name "water slide." For example, upon information and belief, Manley and 25 AWCH themselves or through alter-egos sell a product called the "Banzai Falls
26 Water Slide."

27
28

1 The FRISBEE Mark

2 21. Wham-O has long engaged in the business of manufacturing and
3 marketing in interstate commerce toys called "flying discs" sold under the FRISBEE
4 trademark (the "FRISBEE Mark"). FRISBEE is a federally-registered trademark of 5 Wham-O, U.S. Reg. No. 679,186, attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

6 22. Since the introduction to the public of the FRISBEE flying disc in 7 1957, Wham-O has continuously used the FRISBEE Mark, which has long served to 8 identify and distinguish Wham-O's flying discs from those of others. Wham-O has 9 sold over 100 million flying discs under the FRISBEE Mark, and Wham-O has 10 consistently promoted the mark on its packaging, creating a direct consumer
11 association between the FRISBEE Mark and Wham-O as source.

12 23. Wham-O has widely promoted the FRISBEE Mark, investing
13 significant expenditures on marketing efforts, including television advertising. The 14 product has been sold by all of the nation's largest toy retailers and through over
15 more than four decades of use, promotion and sales, the FRISBEE Mark has become 16 famous. The goodwill connected with the use of, and symbolized by, the FRISBEE
17 Mark is an extremely valuable asset of Wham-O.

18 24. In addition to continuous use of the FRISBEE Mark, Wham-O actively 19 polices the improper use of its mark by others. Wham-O regularly asserts and 20 enforces its rights against third-parties, including sending cease and desist letters
21 and, if necessary, filing lawsuits.

22 25. The primary significance of the FRISBEE Mark among relevant
23 consumers is to identify Wham-O as source. In apparent recognition of the 24 continuing and distinctive source-identifying nature of the FRISBEE Mark, Wham-
25 O competitors routinely refer to their products in the marketplace by the generic
26 name "flying discs." For example, upon information and belief, Manley and 27 AWCH themselves or through alter-egos sell a product called the "Super Disc."

28

1 The HULA HOOP Mark

2 26. Wham-O has long engaged in the business of manufacturing and
3 marketing in interstate commerce goods called "toy hoops" sold under the HULA
4 HOOP trademark (the "HULA HOOP Mark"). HULA HOOP is a federally-5 registered trademark of Wham-O, U.S. Reg. No. 739,307, attached hereto as 6 Exhibit 3.

7 27. Since the introduction to the public of the HULA HOOP toy hoop in 8 1958, Wham-O has continuously used the HULA HOOP Mark, which has long
9 served to identify and distinguish Wham-O's toy hoops from those of others. In 10 just the first two years after its introduction, Wham-O sold over 200 million HULA
11 HOOP toy hoops, which makes it among the best selling toys of all time. Since its 12 introduction, Wham-O has sold many millions more toy hoops under the HULA
13 HOOP Mark, and Wham-O has consistently promoted the mark on its packaging,
14 creating a direct consumer association between the HULA HOOP Mark and Wham-
15 O as source.

16 28. Wham-O has widely promoted the HULA HOOP Mark, investing
17 significant expenditures on marketing efforts, including television advertising. The 18 product has been sold by all of the nation's discount toy retailers and through over 19 more than four decades of use, promotion and sales, the HULA HOOP Mark has 20 become famous. The goodwill connected with the use of, and symbolized by, the 21 HULA HOOP Mark is an extremely valuable asset of Wham-O.

22 29. In addition to continuous use of the HULA HOOP Mark, Wham-O
23 actively polices the improper use of its mark by others. Wham-O regularly asserts
24 and enforces its rights against third-parties, including sending cease and desist
25 letters and, if necessary, filing lawsuits.

26 30. The primary significance of the HULA HOOP Mark among relevant
27 consumers is to identify Wham-O as source. In apparent recognition of the 28 continuing and distinctive source-identifying nature of the HULA HOOP Mark,

1 Wham-O competitors routinely refer to their products in the marketplace by the
 2 generic name "toy hoops."

3 The SUPERBALL Mark

4 31. Wham-O and its predecessors have long engaged in the business of 5 manufacturing and marketing in interstate commerce small high-bouncing rubber
 6 balls sold under the SUPER BALL and SUPERBALL trademarks (the 7 "SUPERBALL Mark"). SUPER BALL is the subject of an incontestable federal 8 trademark registration owned by Wham-O, U.S. Reg. No. 811,650, attached hereto
 9 as Exhibit 4. Wham-O is also the applicant on U.S. Serial No. 77/234,204, for the 10 mark SUPERBALL, for use in connection with sports balls and other related goods.

11 32. Since the introduction to the public of the SUPERBALL toy in 1965,
 12 Wham-O or its predecessors have continuously used the SUPERBALL Mark, which 13 has long served to identify and distinguish Wham-O's toy balls from those of others.
 14 Wham-O and its predecessors have sold millions of toy balls under the 15 SUPERBALL Mark, and Wham-O has consistently promoted the mark on its 16 packaging, creating a direct consumer association between the SUPERBALL Mark
 17 and Wham-O as source.

18 33. Wham-O has widely promoted the SUPERBALL Mark, investing
 19 significant expenditures on marketing efforts, including television advertising. The
 20 product has been sold by all of the nation's largest toy retailers and through over 21 more than four decades of use, promotion and sales, the SUPERBALL Mark has 22 become famous. The goodwill connected with the use of, and symbolized by, the 23 SUPERBALL Mark is an extremely valuable asset of Wham-O.

24 34. In addition to continuous use of the SUPERBALL Mark, Wham-O
 25 actively polices the improper use of its mark by others. Wham-O regularly asserts
 26 and enforces its rights against third-parties, including sending cease and desist
 27 letters and, if necessary, filing lawsuits.

28

1 35. The primary significance of the SUPERBALL Mark among relevant
 2 consumers is to identify Wham-O as source and to distinguish Wham-O's products
 3 from other rubber ball toys.

4 36. Wham-O has previously prevailed in litigation with Manley regarding
 5 the SUPERBALL Mark, obtaining a permanent injunction on October 19, 2006,
 6 barring Manley from using Wham-O's federally-registered SUPERBALL Mark "in 7 connection with the advertising, manufacturing, offering for sale, distribution or sale
 8 of toy products or any other goods that are not authorized by Wham-O." See Wham-
O, Inc. v. Manley Toy Direct, LLC, N.D. CA. Civ. A. No. CV06-04504-JF.

10 The Petitions to Cancel and Oppose

11 37. On April 28, 2008, AWCH filed in the PTO a Petition to Cancel the 12 SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark alleging that the mark "is a generic term for a water slide, 13 upon which the user slips and slides." See PTO Cancellation Proceeding No.
 14 92049264, attached as Exhibit 5. Upon information and belief, AWCH, on its own
 15 or through its alter egos, designs, manufactures and distributes a variety of toys
 16 including an extensive line of water slides.

17 38. On July 10, 2008, Manley filed in the PTO a Petition to Cancel the 18 SLIP 'N SLIDE Mark alleging that the mark "is the common descriptive name of 19 the articles included in [Wham-O's] description of goods and has become the 20 generic name of all such goods." See PTO Cancellation Proceeding No. 92049646,
 21 attached as Exhibit 6. The Petition for Cancellation also states that Manley
 22 "designs, manufactures and distributes a variety of toys including an extensive line 23 of water slides and water toys including slip 'n slides." Id.

24 39. On July 30, 2008, Manley filed in the PTO a Petition to Cancel the 25 FRISBEE Mark alleging that the mark "is the common descriptive name of the 26 articles included in [Wham-O's] description of goods and has become the generic
 27 name of all such goods." See PTO Cancellation Proceeding No. 92049734, attached
 28

1 as Exhibit 7. The Petition for Cancellation also states that Manley “designs,
2 manufactures and distributes a variety of toys, including frisbees.” Id.

3 40. On July 30, 2008, Manley filed in the PTO a Petition to Cancel the 4 HULA HOOP Mark alleging that the mark “is the common descriptive name of the
5 articles included in [Wham-O’s] description of goods and has become the generic
6 name of all such goods.” See PTO Cancellation Proceeding No. 92049760, attached
7 as Exhibit 8. The Petition for Cancellation also states that Manley “designs,
8 manufactures and distributes a variety of toys, including hula-hoops.” Id.

9 41. On or about October 31, 2008, Manley filed in the PTO a Notice of 10 Opposition against Wham-O's application Serial No. 77/234,204 for the 11 SUPERBALL Mark, alleging that Wham-O "does not have a bona fide intent to use
12 the mark SUPERBALL in connection with all the goods listed in the Application",
13 and that Wham-O's application is "fraudulent and constitutes inequitable conduct."
14 See Notice of Opposition No. 91187279, attached as Exhibit 9. The Notice of 15 Opposition further alleges that Manley "designs, manufactures and distributes a 16 variety of toys and believes that it will be damaged by the registration of the term
17 mark SUPERBALL" [sic]. Id.

COUNT I

(Declaratory Judgment Against AWCH – SLIP ‘N SLIDE Mark)

20 42. Wham-O repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs
21 1 through 41 as if fully set forth herein.

22 43. An actual controversy exists between Wham-O and AWCH with 23 respect to the continuing validity of U.S. Reg. No. 761,883 for the SLIP 'N SLIDE
24 Mark.

25 44. AWCH filed a Petition for Cancellation in the PTO, Cancellation
26 Proceeding No. 92049264, in which it contends that the SLIP N SLIDE Mark has
27 become generic and should be cancelled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1064.

45. Wham-O's SLIP N SLIDE Mark has not become generic and defendants cannot prove that it has become generic.

3 46. Wham-O's Reg. No. 761,883 should not be canceled on the ground
4 asserted in the PTO proceeding.

5 47. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Wham-O is therefore entitled
6 to a declaration that the SLIP ‘N SLIDE Mark has not become generic and Reg. No.
7 761,883 remains valid.

COUNT II

(Declaratory Judgment Against Manley – SLIP ‘N SLIDE Mark)

10 48. Wham-O repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs
11 1 through 47 as if fully set forth herein.

12 49. An actual controversy exists between Wham-O and Manley with 13 respect to the continuing validity of U.S. Reg. No. 761,883 for the SLIP 'N SLIDE
14 Mark.

15 50. Manley filed a Petition for Cancellation in the PTO, Cancellation
16 Proceeding No. 92049646, in which it contends that the SLIP N SLIDE Mark has
17 become generic and should be cancelled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1064.

18 51. Wham-O's SLIP N SLIDE Mark has not become generic and 19 defendants cannot prove it has become generic.

20 52. Wham-O's Reg. No. 761,883 should not be canceled on the ground
21 asserted in the PTO proceeding.

22 53. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Wham-O is therefore entitled
23 to a declaration that the SLIP ‘N SLIDE Mark has not become generic and Reg. No.
24 761,883 remains valid.

COUNT III

(Declaratory Judgment Against Manley – FRISBEE Mark)

27 54. Wham-O repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs
28 1 through 53 as if fully set forth herein.

55. An actual controversy exists between Wham-O and Manley with respect to the continuing validity of U.S. Reg. No. 679,186 for the FRISBEE Mark.

56. Manley filed a Petition for Cancellation in the PTO, Cancellation Proceeding No. 92049734, in which it contends that the FRISBEE Mark has become generic and should be cancelled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1064.

57. Wham-O's FRISBEE Mark has not become generic and defendants cannot prove that it has become generic.

58. Wham-O's Reg. No. 679,186 should not be canceled on the ground asserted in the PTO proceeding.

59. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Wham-O is therefore entitled to a declaration that the FRISBEE Mark has not become generic and Reg. No. 679,186 remains valid.

COUNT IV

(Declaratory Judgment Against Manley – HULA HOOP Mark)

60. Wham-O repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 59 as if fully set forth herein.

61. An actual controversy exists between Wham-O and Manley with respect to the continuing validity of U.S. Reg. No. 739,307 for the HULA HOOP Mark.

62. Manley filed a Petition for Cancellation in the PTO, Cancellation Proceeding No. 92049760, in which it contends that the HULA HOOP Mark has become generic and should be cancelled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1064.

63. Wham-O's HULA HOOP Mark has not become generic and defendants cannot prove that it has become generic.

64. Wham-O's Reg. No. 739,307 should not be canceled on the ground asserted in the PTO proceeding.

1 65. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Wham-O is therefore entitled
2 to a declaration that the HULA HOOP Mark has not become generic and Reg. No.
3 739,307 remains valid.

COUNT V

(Declaratory Relief Against Manley – SUPERBALL Mark)

6 66. Wham-O repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs
7 1 through 65 as if fully set forth herein.

8 67. An actual controversy exists between Wham-O and Manley with 9 respect to Wham-O's right to use and register the SUPERBALL Mark.

10 68. Manley filed a Notice of Opposition in the PTO, No. 91187279, in 11 which it contends that the WHAM-O does not have a bona fide intent to use the 12 mark, despite having actual knowledge that Wham-O is already using the mark and 13 has been for many years.

14 69. Manley's claim of lack of bona fide intent, fraud and inequitable
15 conduct is without basis in fact or law, and Manley lacks standing to oppose the 16 application.

17 70. Wham-O's application Serial No. 77/234,204 should proceed to 18 allowance.

19 71. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Wham-O is therefore entitled
20 to a declaration that it committed no fraud or inequitable conduct before the PTO in 21 the prosecution of application Serial No. 77/234,204, that it has a bona fide intent to 22 use the SUPERBALL mark in connection with the goods listed in application Serial
23 No. 77/234,204, and that application Serial No. 77/234,204 should proceed to 24 allowance.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Wham-O respectfully requests entry of Judgment:

27 A. declaring that Wham-O's SLIP N SLIDE Mark has not become generic
28 and Reg. No. 761,883 remains valid;

1 B. enjoining Manley and AWCH and their officers, agents, owners,
2 employees, confederates, alter-egos, attorneys and any persons in active concert or
3 participation with them from using the SLIP N SLIDE Mark (and any other 4 confusingly similar mark) in commerce in connection with their water slides;

5 C. declaring that Wham-O's FRISBEE Mark has not become generic and 6 Reg. No. 679,186 remains valid;

7 D. enjoining Manley and its officers, agents, owners, employees,
8 confederates, alter-egos, attorneys and any persons in active concert or participation
9 with it from using the FRISBEE Mark (and any other confusingly similar mark) in 10 commerce in connection with its flying discs;

11 E. declaring that Wham-O's HULA HOOP Mark has not become generic
12 and Reg. No. 739,307 remains valid;

13 F. enjoining Manley and its officers, agents, owners, employees,
14 confederates, alter-egos, attorneys and any persons in active concert or participation
15 with it from using the HULA HOOP Mark (and any other confusingly similar mark)
16 in commerce in connection with its toy hoops;

17 G. declaring that Wham-O committed no fraud or inequitable conduct
18 before the PTO in the prosecution of application Serial No. 77/234,204, that it has a 19 bona fide intent to use the SUPERBALL mark in connection with the goods listed in 20 application Serial No. 77/234,204, and that application Serial No. 77/234,204 should 21 proceed to allowance;

22 H. enjoining Manley and its officers, agents, owners, employees,
23 confederates, alter-egos, attorneys and any persons in active concert or participation
24 with it from using the SUPERBALL Mark (and any other confusingly similar mark)
25 in commerce in connection with the goods identified in application Serial No.
26 77/234,204;

27 I. awarding Wham-O its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees; and 28

J. granting Wham-O such other further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PETITION FOR CANCELLATION

1. Petitioner, AW Computer Holdings LLC, a California limited liability company, ("Petitioner") with a business address of 2229 Barry Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90064, believes it will be damaged by the continued registration of United States Trademark Registration Nos. 0761883, 1432069 and 2924744 and, by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby petitions to cancel these registrations.

2. The foregoing registrations are owned by Wham-O, Inc. ("Registrant"). Petitioner is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Registrant has a principal place of business at 5903 Christie Avenue, Emeryville, California 94608.

Reg. No. 0761883 - Generic

3. The term SLIP 'N SLIDE which is the subject of Reg. No. 0761883 is a generic term for a water slide, upon which the user slips and slides.

Reg. No. 1432069 – De Jure Functional

4. The design of Reg. No. 1432069 is comprised of matter that, as a whole, is functional within the meaning of Section 2(e)(5) of the Trademark Act (15 U.S.C. §1052(e)(5)).

Reg. No. 2924744 – No Secondary Meaning and Ornamental

5. The design of Reg. No. 2924744 is merely descriptive and had not achieved secondary meaning as of the filing date of the application that matured into the subject registration; and is ornamental and does not function as a trademark.

As to Reg. No. 1432069 – Fraud on Trademark Office

6. The mark of Reg. No. 1432069 was abandoned. Registrant did not advise the Trademark Office of the functionality of the design of Reg. No. 1432069 nor that it had become abandoned, and thus Registrant committed fraud on the Trademark Office. If the Trademark Office had known of the functionality of the design of Reg. No. 1432069, it would not have granted Reg. No. 1432069. If The Trademark Office had known of the abandonment of Reg. No. 1432069, it would not have maintained the registration on the Principal Register.

7. Petitioner believes it will be harmed by the continued registration of Reg. Nos. 0761883, 1432069 and 2924744, which were improperly, fraudulently and/or inequitably obtained. As a matter of public policy, improperly, fraudulently and inequitably obtained registrations should not be permitted to remain on the Register, and Petitioner, a potential competitor of Registrant, believes it will be harmed by the maintenance of such registrations.

8. If Registrant is allowed to maintain Reg. Nos. 0761883, 1432069 and 2924744, it would thereby continue to maintain at least a prima facie exclusive right to the use of the marks related thereto. Such registrations are and continue to be a source of damage and injury to Petitioner as marks improperly procured, or procured by fraud or inequitable conduct, and should not be maintained on the Register.

9. For full disclosure, in Wham-O, Inc. v. SLB Toys, United States District Court for the Central District of California, Case No. CV 06-1382 RSWL (CWx), Registrant Wham-O obtained a jury verdict against SLB Toys, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The foregoing case dealt in part with the validity of Reg. Nos. 1432069 and 2924744. Petitioner was not a party to this litigation. Petitioner has acquired the appellate rights that SLB Toys previously owned, and is now prosecuting an appeal of the verdict and other orders in the case before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals; the Notice of Appeal being filed on March 5, 2008. Petitioner is also a defendant in the recently filed case Wham-O, Inc. v. Manley Toys, Ltd., A.W. Computer Holdings, et al. (USDC Central District of California, Case No. CV08-01281PSG(Ex)). Because of the pendency of the appeal and Petitioner's rights therein, and the aforementioned lawsuit, Petitioner is also being harmed by the maintenance of Reg. Nos. 1432069 and 2924744.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, and in accordance with Section 14 of the Trademark Act, Petitioner prays that this Petition for Cancellation be sustained and that Reg. Nos. 0761883, 1432069, and 2924744 be cancelled.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge the required fee of nine hundred dollars ($900) to Deposit Account No. 10-0440. Please charge any deficiency or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 10-0440.

This Petition for Cancellation is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Petitioner in this proceeding, pursuant to C.F.R. § 2.111(b).

PETITION FOR CANCELLATION

1. Petitioner, Manley Toys Ltd. ("Petitioner"), a company organized under the laws of Hong Kong, with its principal place of business in Kowloon, Hong Kong, and which conducts business in the United States, believes it will be damaged by the continued registration of United States Trademark Registration Nos. 761,883 (SLIP 'N SLIDE) and, by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby petitions to cancel this registration.

2. The foregoing registration is owned by respondent Wham-O, Inc. ("Respondent"). Petitioner is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Respondent has a principal place of business at 5903 Christie Avenue, Emeryville, California 94608.

3. Petitioner designs, manufactures and distributes a variety of toys including an extensive line of water slides and water toys including slip 'n slides.

4. Respondent's purported mark SLIP 'N SLIDE, which is the subject of Reg. No. 761,883, is the common descriptive name of the articles included in Respondent's description of goods and has become the generic name of all such goods. Therefore, Petitioner alleges that Respondent's registered mark does not function to identify the source of Respondent's goods and distinguish them from goods offered by others.

5. Petitioner is likely to be damaged by the continued registration of the generic term "slip 'n slide" in that Respondent's registration impairs Petitioner's right to legally use the term "slip 'n slide" to describe its products and impairs Petitioner's right to refer to its products by their common descriptive name.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, and in accordance with Section 14 of the Trademark Act, Petitioner prays that this Petition for Cancellation be sustained and that Reg. No. 761,883 be cancelled.

Cancellation No. _____

Reg. No. 739,307

Marks: HULA-HOOP

United States Patent and Trademark Office

Trademark Trial and Appeal Board
P.O. Box 1451
Alexandria, VA 22313-1451

PETITION FOR CANCELLATION

1. Petitioner, Manley Toys Ltd. ("Petitioner"), a company organized under the laws of Hong Kong, with its principal place of business in Kowloon, Hong Kong. Petitioner conducts business in the United States. It believes it will be damaged by the continued registration of United States Trademark Registration No. 739,307 (HULA-HOOP) and, by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby petitions to cancel this registration.

2. The foregoing registration is owned by respondent Wham-O, Inc. ("Respondent"). Petitioner is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Respondent has a principal place of business at 5903 Christie Avenue, Emeryville, California 94608.

3. Petitioner designs, manufactures and distributes a variety of toys, including hula-hoops.

4. Respondent's purported mark HULA-HOOP, which is the subject of Reg. No. 739,307, is the common descriptive name of the articles included in Respondent's description of goods and has become the generic name of all such goods. Therefore, Petitioner alleges that Respondent's registered mark does not function to identify the source of Respondent's goods and distinguish them from goods offered by others.

5. Petitioner is likely to be damaged by the continued registration of the generic term "hula-hoop" in that Respondent's registration impairs Petitioner's right to legally use the term "hula-hoop" to describe its products and impairs Petitioner's right to refer to its products by their common descriptive name.

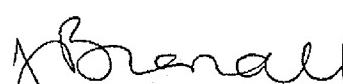

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, and in accordance with Section 14 of the Trademark Act, Petitioner prays that this Petition for Cancellation be sustained and that Reg. No. 739,307 be cancelled. This Petition for Cancellation is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Petitioner in this proceeding, pursuant to C.F.R. § 2.111(b).

Atty. Ref. No.: 69447-0014

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Commissioner for Trademarks
P.O. Box 1451
Alexandria, VA 22313-1451

Opposer, Manley Toys Ltd. ("Opposer"), is a company organized under the laws of Hong Kong, with its principal place of business in Kowloon, Hong Kong. Opposer conducts business in the United States, and believes that it is and will be damaged by the registration on the Principal Register of SUPERBALL, the subject of Application Serial No. 77/234,204 (the "Application"), allegedly owned by Wham-O, Inc. ("Applicant"), and Opposer hereby opposes registration of the foregoing mark.

As grounds for this Opposition, it is alleged that:

1. On information and belief, Applicant is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business at 5903 Christie Avenue, Emeryville, California 94608.
2. The Application was filed on or about July 19, 2007, based on an alleged intent to use in commerce the SUPERBALL mark in connection with goods in Int. Classes 6, 9, 14, 18, 20, 21, 24, 25, and 28.

3. The Application was published for opposition on October 7, 2008 in connection with "metal key chains; metal key rings; figures of common metal; figurines of common metal; metal bicycle locks; metal key holders" in Int. Cl. 6; "computer game software and computer game programs, namely, videogames and interactive videogames for use with gaming consoles, cell phones, personal computers, and hand-held videogame devices; downloadable software, namely, videogames and interactive videogames; sunglasses; decorative magnets; eyeglass cases; telephones; fashion eyeglasses; swimming goggles; snow goggles; diving goggles; goggles for sports; protection and safety apparatus, namely, inflatable floatation devices" in Int. Cl. 9; "precious metals and their alloys; horological and chronometric instruments; jewelry; costume jewelry; earrings; rings; medallions; non-monetary coins of precious metal; clocks; watches; stop watches; ankle bracelets; body piercing rings and studs; identification bracelets" in Int. Cl. 14; "animal skins and hides; trunks and traveling bags; umbrellas; saddlery; luggage; sports bags; duffel bags; garment bags; backpacks; briefcases; fanny packs; handbags; luggage tags; knapsacks; tote bags; purses; wallets; credit card cases; gym bags; all-purpose sports gear carrying bags; dog leashes; shoe bags for travel; school bags; pet collars" in Int.
